TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

THIS CAUSE came on to be heard before the Court on the Former Wife's Emergency Motion for Injunction, for Sanctions, and for Other Relief. The Court has considered the specific facts shown by the Verified Motion and has determined that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result to the Former Wife before the Former Husband can be heard in opposition. This Court is satisfied with Former Wife's attorney's certification regarding lack of effort to give notice of the application to this Court for the entry of this temporary injunction. Furthermore, this Court is satisfied that Former Wife has met the requirements of Rule 1.610, Florida Rules of Civil Procedures, for the entry of a temporary injunction. Accordingly, it is the finding of this Court as follows:

- a. That this Temporary Injunction was granted without notice to the adverse party;
- b. That this Temporary Injunction was entered on this _____ day of August, 2005 at _____ o'clock a.m./p.m.;

- c. That it appears from the facts of record that entry of this Temporary Injunction will serve to prevent further harm to the Former Wife which, were the order not entered, would constitute further immediate and irreparable injury;
